

The 32nd

Ueno Summer Festival Parade

About
the Ueno Summer Festival
Parade

The Ueno Summer Festival Parade was first held more than three decades ago to celebrate the opening of the Tohoku Shinkansen in 1982. It takes place in three locations - Ueno Station, the Suijo Ongakudo (the Concert Hall on the Water), and Ueno Chuo Dori - and visitors can see a display of gorgeous, energetic performances by approximately 30 different organizations, including representatives from Tohoku festivals such as the Aomori Nebuta, Akita Kanto, and Morioka Sansa Odori.
